FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--The intercollegiate portion of Claude Magee's track season has come to a close.

The junior sprinter from Eastern Illinois University recently competed in the 100 and 200 meter dashes at the NCAA National Championship meet but failed to advance to the finals in either event.

He ran the 100 in 10.4 placing fourth in his heat and turned a 20.98 time in the 200 finishing third in his heat at Eugene, OR.

Magee was the lone representative from EIU qualifying for national competition.

He now focuses his attention on the Olympic Trials which will be held in Los Angeles on June 16-24.

Magee's best times this spring were 10.16 in the 100 and 20.68 in the 200, both EIU school records.
